THE AMERICAN MILITARY INSTITUTE is a nongovernmental association incorporated as an educational, literary, and scientific society under the laws of the District of Columbia. It originated in 1933, as the American Military History Foundation, under inspiration of the leadership of Colonel C. E. T. Lull, since deceased, then Chief of the Historical Section, Army War College.

The objects of the AMERICAN MILITARY INSTITUTE, as stated in its Certificate of Incorporation, are "to stimulate and advance the study of military history, especially that of the United States; to diffuse knowledge thereof by publications, displays, and otherwise; and to acquire and preserve manuscripts, publications, relics, and other material relating thereto."

Persons who wish to become members are invited to submit their names to the Secretary, American Military Institute, 511 - 11th Street, N. W., Washington 4, D. C. Annual dues are $4.50; life membership, $75; benefactor, $250; and patron, $500. Institutions and organizations may subscribe to MILITARY AFFAIRS.
